THE NEW TRAIL FOR 1866,

"BOULEVARD." BOULEVARD! BOULEVARD! BOULEVARD! Meets us wherever we turn our eyes. We hear it, too, lisped from daintiest lips. Is it a talisman, or is it a Crinoline v Its Trade Mark is a Royal Crown. Its train is pronounced peerless. Thomson's Crowning Discovery. For particulars, Lallies of Fashion will call at the well known Dry Goods Establishment of W. H. & R. S. TUCKER. Hosiery, Corsels, Notions, &c.

COMMISSION BUSINESS In this town, west side of Craven Street, on old County Wharf. To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other tocks, we will give our personal attention. We are Agents for Marray's North-Carolina semi-weekly Line of Steamships between New-bern and New York, and for sailing vessels for Baltimore, Pailadelphia and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passen-gers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocear Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Nor-folk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit. All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

A CARD! LL MEN OF EDUCATION and reflection A should ponder well upon the advantages of Life Insurance, and should promulgate their ac-Life Insurance, and should promulgate their acquired knowledge throughout the whole circle of their acquaintance. They should remember that it recommends itself in many instances, not mere ly as a measure of expediency, but as a bounden duty, a duty easily discharged by the payment of a moderate sum. The question is: shall the married man trust the comfort of his family to a chance ?-albeit a promising one; or is he not rather bound to make sure of a provision, as far as te can, for his wife, his children, his helpless relations, for all those dependant upon support, and through the medium of Life Insurance, assure an adequate provision again t impending poverty and irretrievable distress? How many men have I heard say: "Yes, but I wan! to insure for a large sum when I do insure, and it is not convenient now." And so, because the man annot gratify his vanity and pay the premium on $20,000, he dies, and leaves his wife and child hou cless, sorrow-stricken and broken hearted, thrust on the cold kindness of quasi charitable relations, without a cent to bury him or provide food for themselves. And this because he, the loving and devoted husband, would not make even a temporary provision, consonant with his circumstances, for the wife who had been his nurse in sickness, his friend in distress, and whom he had sworn to cherish and protect, and by the ayment of $75 or $100, secure many Strange that man, who owes to his wife the chief chain of his existence, the every day comfort of his life, should be able to look heartlessly to that period when their last parting shall take place,— when removed to that world, where to him, all is hope and consolation, he shall have wilfully left in darkness and desolation, steeped in poverty and wretchedness, to struggle with the hard jus-tice of a hard hearted world. Resorting to Life Insurance is risking nothing, but truly securing a certain profit upon that which is, at all times, an uncertain event.
